

SAFE GUARDING POLICY.

1. PRINCIPLES:

The policy applies to all learners between the ages of 16-18, 19-23 and 24+ whose care and education comes within the remit of this organisation.

2. POLICY STATEMENT:

Kingdom College Limited fully recognises the responsibility it has regarding safeguarding and promoting the welfare of learners and is defined for the purposes of this guidance as:

- Protecting people from maltreatment.
- Preventing impairment of learners' health or development.
- Ensuring that learners are growing up in circumstances consistent with the provision of safe and effective care.
- Undertaking that role so as to enable those people to have optimum life chances and enter adulthood successfully;
- Promoting a safe environment free from violence.
- A young person is anyone under the age of eighteen.

A vulnerable adult is:

Anyone aged 18 years and over who are dependent on family members, their social network, professionals or volunteers, as a result of a special need arising from the ageing process, physical or mental ill-health, learning disability or physical or sensory impairment. It is the level of dependency in respect of the meeting of basic needs that renders these adults particularly vulnerable. Vulnerable adults may be victims and/or abusers and they may themselves be in a caring role.

1. Section 175 of the Education Act 2002 states that governing bodies:
 - (a) must have arrangements for ensuring that the functions conferred on them in their capacity as a further education institution are exercised with a view to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of young people.
 - (b) shall have regard to any guidance given from time to time by the Secretary of State.
2. It is the responsibility of all members of staff to record and report concerns under this policy.
3. Kingdom College Limited endeavours to prevent all abusive situations, abuse can be described as:

Physical Abuse: This can include hitting, slapping, pushing, kicking, inappropriate restraint or sanction, misuse of medication or any other physical harm to vulnerable people.

SAFE GUARDING POLICY.

Neglect: Neglect is a persistent or severe failure to meet the vulnerable person's basic needs and may include ignoring medical and or physical care needs, failure to provide access to appropriate health, social care, and or educational services. Neglect will also include withholding medication adequate nutrition and heating.

Sexual Abuse: This includes rape, and sexual assault or the vulnerable person participating in or being coerced into participating in or watching sexual activity. It is not necessary for the vulnerable person to be aware that the activity is sexual and the apparent consent of the vulnerable person is irrelevant.

Emotional Abuse: Emotional abuse will include emotional abuse, threats of harm or abandonment, deprivation of contact, harassment, isolation and or withdrawal of services of supportive networks.

Discriminatory Abuse: Discriminatory abuse includes racist and sexual abuse that is based upon the individual's disability.

Financial Abuse: Financial abuse relates to the unauthorised and improper use of funds, money or resources belonging to the individual.

Institutional Abuse: Institutional abuse includes the practice of an abusive regime or culture which destroys the dignity and respect to which every person is entitled. It is the mistreatment of people brought about by poor or inadequate care or support, and poor practice that affects the whole setting. It occurs when the individual's wishes and needs are sacrificed for the smooth running of a group, service or organisation.

SAFE GUARDING POLICY.

7. ALLEGATIONS AGAINST STAFF:

1. Any individual who has a concern of a Vulnerable Adult Protection nature, relating to a member of staff, must report the matter at the earliest opportunity to the Director.
2. A Vulnerable Adult Protection concern will always exist, and therefore these Procedures must be followed whenever a member of staff is observed to subject, or is accused of subjecting a Vulnerable Adult to any abusive behaviour.
3. If any individual is unhappy that their concerns are not being taken seriously within the Company, they should refer directly to Social Services.
4. The Designated Safeguarding Officer will consult with Social Services to determine:
 - If there is a need to undertake preliminary enquiries and, if so, how the enquiries should be conducted or;
 - If there is sufficient information available to conduct an investigation under Vulnerable Adult Protection Procedures;
5. Whether immediate action to protect a Vulnerable Adult is required.
6. Preliminary enquiries should be made by the Directors, after consultation with Social Services.
7. The enquiries should be minimal to establish the facts of the allegation if these were not established or were unclear at the time the original concern was raised, i.e. date, time, place of any alleged incident, any witnesses and other relevant factors.
8. In depth questioning of vulnerable adults or professionals/professional carers should not take place.
9. Careful records should be made regarding any concerns or allegations and actions taken in response to these.

11. When an allegation is made a number of inter-related elements will exist (Vulnerable Adult Protection, Criminal Investigation, Disciplinary, complaints).

12. PROCEDURES

Procedures to follow if a Vulnerable Adult makes a disclosure to you that may relate to abuse or possible abuse.

If a Vulnerable Adult makes an allegation of abuse to you:

You should:

- Listen. Do not interrupt.
- You MUST NOT promise the Vulnerable adult that you will keep the matter confidential. Explain to him/her that you have to report the matter to the Designated Safeguarding Officer, as this is your legal duty.
- Once the individual has finished speaking, it may be necessary to ask questions.

SAFE GUARDING POLICY.

- Only ask questions if you are still unsure whether this is a Vulnerable Adult Protection issue. You are not conducting an investigation; you are simply establishing the key facts.
- Only ask simple, open, non-leading questions. E.g. if a vulnerable adult tells you they have been hurt, ask “How did you get hurt?” rather than “Did someone hit you?”
- Once you know you are concerned enough to raise the matter with the Safeguarding Officer, don’t ask any more questions.
- Write down a report in a safeguarding incident record (that can be found appendix 1) what has been said immediately afterwards in words used by the Vulnerable Adult and yourself to the best of your memory.
- Note anything about the Vulnerable Adult which is connected i.e. any visible injuries including the position and description, the demeanour of the Vulnerable Adult i.e. crying, withdrawn. These should also be recorded immediately afterwards.
- The matter should be immediately reported to a Designated Safeguarding Officer, and all records taken should be handed over at this time.
- If in doubt seek advice from a Designated Safeguarding Officer.
- The Designated Safeguarding Officer will make a judgement as to whether a referral to Social Services is appropriate. If there is doubt, then advice must be sought from Social Services or LADO.
